Piper and Ethan have been best friends since they were kids. They've always been there for each other, through thick and thin. But what happens when they start to develop feelings for each other's siblings?

Piper has always had a crush on Ethan's older brother, Jake. He's popular, handsome, and everything she's ever wanted in a boyfriend. But Jake is dating someone else, and Piper knows that she can't interfere.

Ethan has always been close to Piper's younger sister, Lily. She's smart, funny, and always makes him laugh. But Lily is dating someone else, and Ethan knows that he can't interfere.

As the summer before their senior year begins, Piper and Ethan find themselves spending more and more time together. They talk about everything, from their hopes and dreams to their fears and insecurities. And as they get to know each other better, they start to realize that they have a lot more in common than they thought.

One night, after a party, Piper and Ethan find themselves alone in her living room. They start to talk about their feelings, and before they know it, they're kissing. It's a forbidden kiss, but it's also the most amazing kiss either of them has ever experienced.

Piper and Ethan start dating in secret, but they know that they can't keep it hidden forever. Eventually, their friends and family find out, and they're not happy about it. They tell Piper and Ethan that they're making a mistake, and that they should break up.

Piper and Ethan are torn. They love each other, but they don't want to hurt their friends and family. They decide to give each other some space, and they stop dating.

But they can't stay away from each other for long. They miss each other too much. And eventually, they decide to give their relationship another try.

This time, they're more careful. They don't tell anyone about their relationship, and they make sure to keep it a secret.

Piper and Ethan's relationship is full of ups and downs. They have to deal with the disapproval of their friends and family, and they have to keep their relationship a secret. But they're determined to make it work.

In the end, Piper and Ethan get their happily ever after. They prove that love can conquer all, even the disapproval of their friends and family.
