The legend of Parzival is a medieval tale that tells the story of a young knight who sets out on a quest to find the Holy Grail. Along the way, he meets many challenges and adventures, and eventually he succeeds in his quest.

One of the most interesting aspects of the legend of Parzival is the story of how eleven knights created a new country and refuge for the Grail. This story is told in the Parzival manuscript, which was written in the 13th century.

The Eleven Knights

The eleven knights who created the new country were:

- Parzival

- Gawain
- Lancelot
- Erec
- Iwein
- Wigalois
- Tristan
- Gawain
- Perceval
- Galahad
- Lamorak

These knights were all members of King Arthur's court, and they were all renowned for their bravery and skill.

The Quest for the Grail

The eleven knights set out on a quest to find the Holy Grail. They traveled for many years, and they faced many dangers along the way. But eventually, they found the Grail, and they brought it back to King Arthur's court.

The Grail was a holy object that was said to have the power to grant eternal life. It was a powerful symbol of Christianity, and it was highly sought after by many people.

The Creation of the New Country

After the eleven knights brought the Grail back to King Arthur's court, they decided to create a new country where they could keep the Grail safe. They called this new country "Grail Castle," and it was located in a remote and hidden valley.

Grail Castle was a place of peace and safety. The eleven knights who lived there were all devoted to the Grail, and they spent their lives protecting it.

Grail Castle became a refuge for those who were seeking spiritual enlightenment. People from all over the world came to Grail Castle to learn about the Grail and to experience its power.

The Legacy of the Eleven Knights

The eleven knights who created Grail Castle left a lasting legacy. They were known as the "Knights of the Grail," and they were revered by people all over the world.

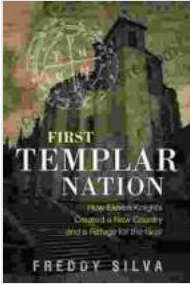

The story of the Knights of the Grail is still told today. It is a story of adventure, courage, and faith. It is a story that reminds us of the power of human spirit.

The story of how eleven knights created a new country and refuge for the Grail is a fascinating one. It is a story that speaks to the power of faith, courage, and human spirit. It is a story that continues to inspire people today.
