Integrative Medicine Consultations

Integrative medicine consultations are a type of medical care that combines conventional medicine with complementary and alternative medicine (CAM). CAM therapies are therapies that are not typically considered part of conventional medicine, such as acupuncture, chiropractic, and herbal medicine.

Integrative medicine consultations are conducted by a team of healthcare professionals who are trained in both conventional medicine and CAM. These healthcare professionals work together to develop a treatment plan that is tailored to the individual needs of the patient.

Integrative medicine consultations can be helpful for a variety of health conditions, including:

- Chronic pain
- Cancer
- Heart disease

- Stroke
- Diabetes
- Mental health conditions
